1960

WHEREAS, Their influence and encouragement has contributed widely to the molding of our lives,
has helped us choose Thy path, our chosen way,
has guided us in reaching this scholastic goal;
We gratefully dedicate this 1960 Laurel Wreath to our parents,
our schoolteachers,
our pastors and Sunday-school teachers.

Foreword

Well along on the journey of life we found the path climbing higher and higher, the way growing more difficult. . . . We stopped short . . . ahead lay diverging roads. One was sloping, leading downward to level plains and all we had known; the other leading upward, steep and rough . . . yet new.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no steps had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

DECISIONS . . . important . . . choosing . . . our course in life . . . destiny at stake . . . difficult, yet stimulating . . . some pending . . . others made.

We paused . . . considered . . . then launched enthusiastically into the toil of the upward trail. . . . We have made, O Lord, THY PATH, OUR CHOSEN WAY!

This choice was motivated. . . .

To Thy temple I repair;
Lord, I love to worship there,
When within the veil I meet
Christ before the mercy seat.

From Thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn,
And at evening let me say,
"I have walked with God today."

Meditation

Whether in a dim stained-glass cathedral,
  Or a small bare room,
Whether in God's great outdoors,
  Beside a roaring sea, or on a rounded stump,
We find moments to Stop,
Think,
Meditate.

Whether alone,
  Or among a crowd of worshipers,
We sense God's Mercy,
Goodness,
Love.
We adore Him in moments of ecstasy,
  Confide in Him our problems.
The majestic sovereignty of God fills, envelopes our souls,
Giving us
Peace,
Joy,
Satisfaction.

Psalm 86:11

Twelve short years of preparation . . . preparing for an unknown future. . . .

We chose L.M.S. . . . strange curriculums confronted us . . . God led . . . we chose. . . .

Study . . . study . . . study. . . .

Assignments . . . recitations . . . projects . . . themes . . . research . . . tests. . . .

Struggles . . . headaches . . . failures . . . successes . . . joys . . . uneasiness . . . confidence . . . a shining A . . . a disdainful D . . . integrity . . . perseverance . . . diligence . . . unconcern . . . these we possessed in varying degrees.

We learned vague facts.

The slide rule is based on the idea of logarithms. . . . The Normans conquered England in 1066. . . . One mole of any gas occupies 22.4 liters under Standard temperature and pressure. . . . Liabilities + Proprietorship = Assets. . . .

Why all this? Can all this ever apply to my vocation practically. . . .

We must prepare today. . . . Tomorrow dare not find us lacking.

Scholastic Endeavors

"Raspberry or vanilla?"
"It really doesn't matter very much.
Make mine vanilla."

Always there are choices.
Some don't matter at all,
Like the well-worn drugstore question.

There are others,
Choices that can spell the difference
Between chaos or creation.
And neglect of a choice
Is in itself a choosing.

There are aimed words like swift, barbed arrows
Or soft syllables that salve the arrow wounds;
Then there are the words not spoken,
Through laziness, boredom, or unconcern—
The meaningless silences
Neither hurting nor healing—
These are most deadly of all.

The narrow road leads to heights
Well worth the climbing,
And the broad road slants sharply downward;
But the broadest road
Curves pleasantly along the level fields,
Where men forget
To lift their eyes to God-lit heights
Or lower them
To fearfulness of demon-haunted depths.

Choice is microscopic,
And choice is vast as infinity—
Atom-sized,
And atom-powered—
The handclap of a moment
Echoes forever down the long valley of eternity.

Choice is complicated as a tangle of steel wires,
Again, it is simple—

Confusion or Christ?

And to neglect the choice
Is in itself a choosing.

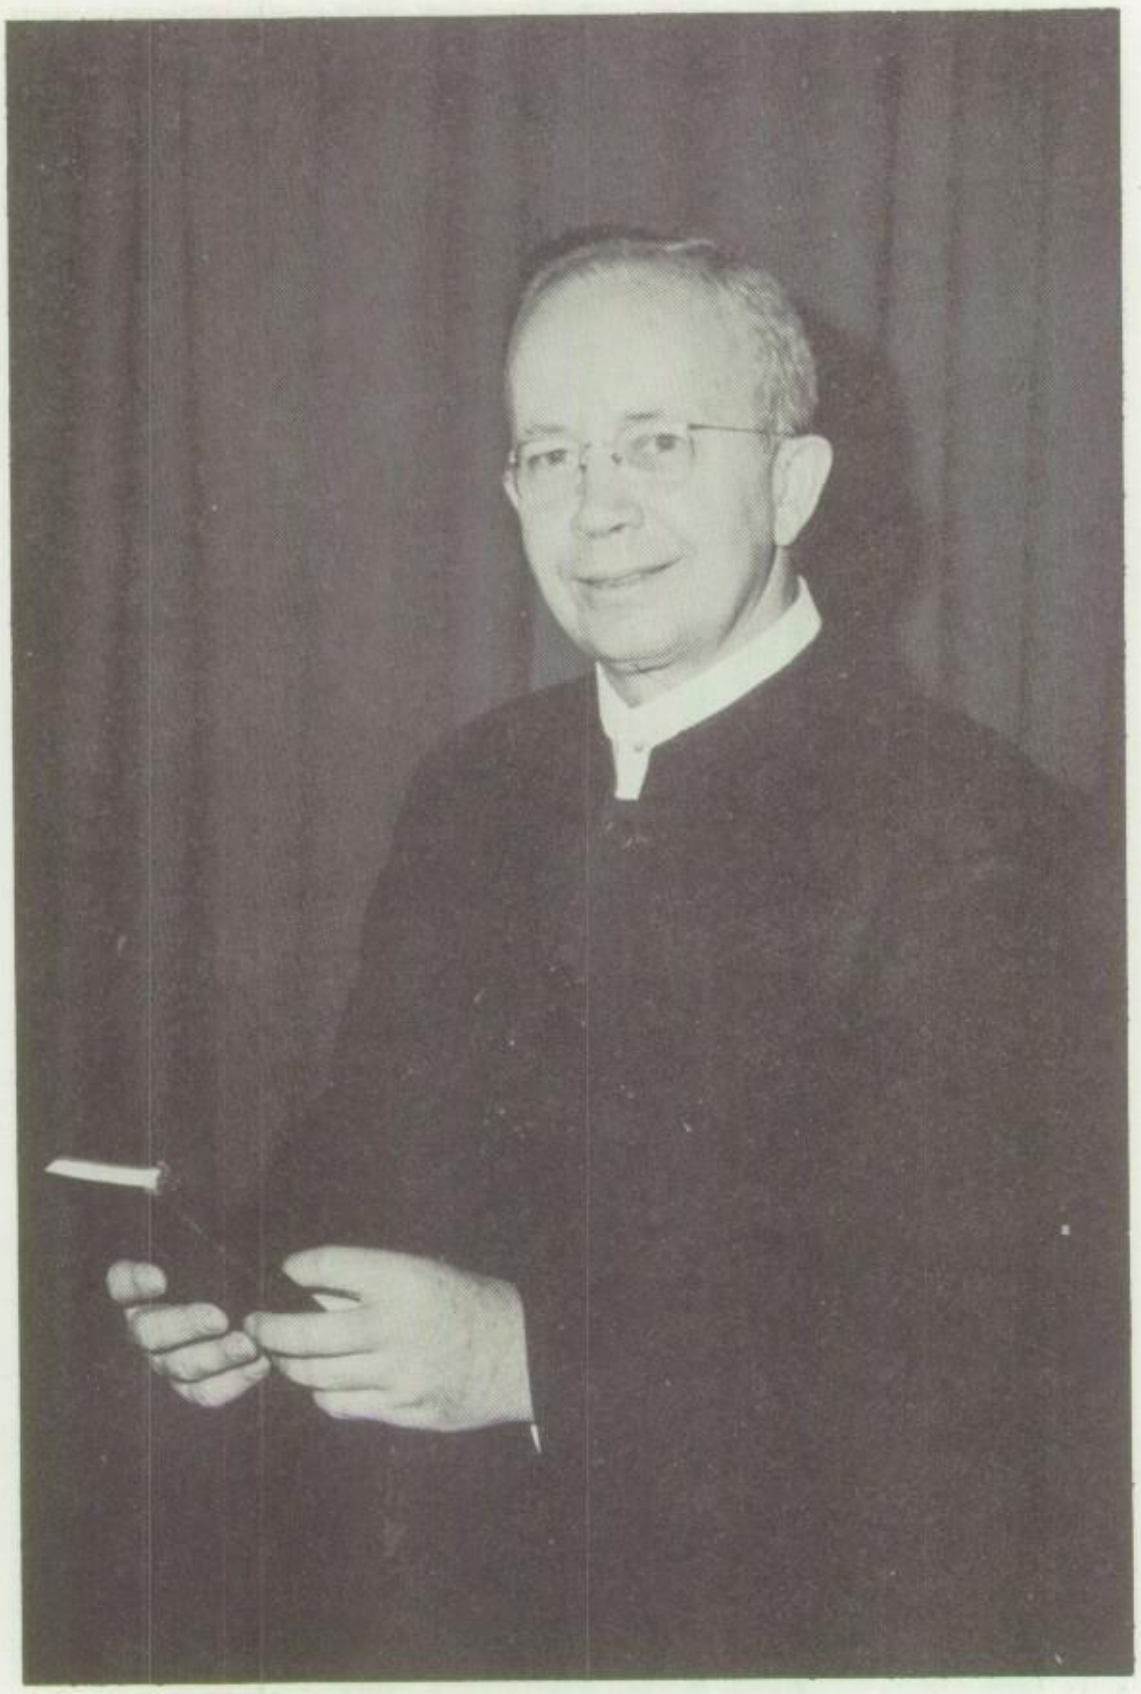
PRINCIPAL

Bro. Weaver, principal of our school, is marking his 15th anniversary of service at L.M.S. this year. He has served as student pastor and taught several Bible classes. He has served as pastor of Paradise Church and has served on many conference committees. He has held over thirty series of evangelistic meetings.

Bro. Weaver's family not only includes his four married daughters and twenty-one grandchildren, but his keen interest in and devotion to every student has given this fatherly counselor tremendous parental responsibility. He shares his concerns in his challenging chapel messages.

Bro. Weaver is a self-educated man who reads widely and is well informed. Gardening at his home in Paradise, Pa., is one of his hobbies.



NOAH G. GOOD

DEAN

During the eighteen years of L.M.S. existence, Bro. Noah Good has been here to guide students with troublesome curriculum problems. Besides serving as dean, Bro. Good teaches Spanish I and II, German I and II, and First Aid.

His particular talent is languages. He is able to read and speak fluently German and Spanish, and has studied and reads French, Dutch, Italian, Russian, Latin, and Greek. For relaxation he enjoys gardening, woodworking, and collecting stamps.

From August, 1957, to August, 1958, his responsibilities lay on the shoulders of Bro. Harvey Bauman while Bro. Good served as pastor to the Pax boys in Europe.

Although Bro. Good was ordained to the ministry at Reading and served some time at East Chestnut Street Church, he has no definite assignment at present.

Having received his B.S. in Education from Elizabethtown College; M.S. in Education and now a candidate for Ed.D. from University of Pennsylvania, Bro. Good is well qualified for his administrative position.

SECRETARY-TREASURER

Bro. Stoner, head of the business department, not only has the headaches of bills and payments, but also teaches typing and bookkeeping. He has been with us from the first year of school here. Before L.M.S. was originated, he taught elementary grades in East Earl Township, Farmersville, and Ephrata. He enjoys working with older students who have more mature minds.

He has one pet peeve—that is, having to remind his students to think. His idea of a model student is one who is quiet and considerate of others.

A pleasing personality with a dry sense of humor makes his teaching career a success. He is efficient and businesslike. His versatility shows itself in his hobbies, such as woodworking, piano playing, and singing. His little family of two boys and a girl is also skilled in music, particularly the piano.

His well-rounded education includes a B.S. in Education from Elizabethtown College and a Master's degree from Temple University.

Class Poem

THY PATH, OUR CHOSEN WAY

"Looking out across the future,
Facing it with skill and zest,
Master, we would want to follow
In the path that you think best.
Youth, ambition, hope, and honor
Urge-us on to wealth and fame,
But we want to choose the pathway
That would honor Thy dear name."

Softly comes the Master's answer
In a voice so strong and clear,
"Children, be my faithful servants,
And leave all that you hold dear.
Trials, challenges will face you,
If you're willing to obey,
To leave all and follow onward
In the strait and narrow way.

"To the faithful I have promised
Untold blessings, untold love,
Entrance to the heavenly portals
And the shining courts above.
I may call you to the cities
Over land, o'er the seas,
But remember what I've promised,
And leave all to follow me."

Chapters in our lives are closing
O'er our school years swiftly gone.
Sweetest mem'ries ne'er forgotten
Through our lives shall linger on.
When we leave our Alma Mater,
May we pledge from day to day,
"Master, we shall always follow
In Thy Path, Our Chosen Way."

—Janice D. Horst.

Class Song

Donald Sheeler — Lorraine Murphy

1. O gra - cious God, to Thee we owe our full - est thanks and praise,
2. Thy love to us is as a ray of light, an end - less stream,
3. O gra - cious God, wilt Thou be - stow on us Thy grace this day,

For Thou art our e - ter - nal Rock, our Strength in storm - y way,
Which on and on through dark - ness shines its pure and crys - tal gleam,
And ev - er - more that we may live in Thine own will for aye;

Oft have we seen a val - ley dark, and oft a toil - some day,
Till in our hearts it find its - self a joy - ful, wel - come stay.
And ev - er let us sing to Thee as war - riors true, we pray;

But still our hands in Thine we take Thy Path, Our Cho - sen Way.
And to re - turn that love we take Thy Path, Our Cho - sen Way.

After third verse only

"Ac - cept us, Lord, as here we take Thy Path, Our Cho - sen Way." A - men.
